

ARMSTRONG COUNTY AREA AGENCY ON AGING

NEEDS VOLUNTEERS- Health Insurance APPRISE Program

The Armstrong Co. Area Agency on Aging is looking for volunteers to assist in health insurance counseling (Apprise). Most Apprise counselors are volunteers who start out as concerned citizens, who have a question or issue regarding their own health insurance. Once they find the answer, they want to learn more and share what they have learned with others.

You can become an Apprise volunteer!

- As a volunteer, you will receive free training about Medicare and related health insurance products.
- You will also get to participate in additional training and certification courses to maintain your level of expertise.
- Through Apprise, you can become a counselor, a speaker, an assistant, a data entry person, or even a writer.
- Whatever your talents or schedule may be, there is an opportunity for you. You can volunteer 4 hours, 10 hours, or as many hours as you want per month. You also receive mileage reimbursement.

Please make an investment of your time to help others become an Apprise volunteer today! To learn more about becoming a volunteer, contact:
