ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ms. Kirkpatrick announced that February 17, 2009 thru March 10, 2009 is the timeframe for anyone interested in running for local or county office to circulate and file petitions. A list of those offices up for election is posted on the County's website. Anyone interested can either stop in the elections office and pick up a packet or call the office to request that a packet be mailed to them.

OTHER BUSINESS/PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. Fink spoke about the stimulus package. He feels that not only Free Trade but Fair Trade is needed. He stated that in August 2007 the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania adopted a "Free Trade" resolution. Mr. Fink applauds the United States Congress for taking quick and decisive action on the stimulus package. He is looking forward to the benefits of the stimulus package on the economy, especially in regards to putting Armstrong County citizens back to work.

Ms. Kirkpatrick expressed concern that the stimulus money will be used carefully to be effective and beneficial to the economy. She described it as a significant debt that is being passed on to future generations. She stated that as a Commissioner she was not on the voting committee, but she remains cautiously hopeful that the stimulus package will be effective in improving the economic state of our country.

Ms. Kirkpatrick noted the significance of today for twelve students in a South Park elementary school who will have the opportunity to speak with Astronaut Michael Fincke while he is in space orbit. She said she thinks the technological advances and how they are used today is quite significant. She reflected back to when her husband's class was going to watch the televised launch of the shuttle when Christa McAuliffe, a teacher was scheduled to enter space. Ms. McAuliffe along with the six astronauts aboard the space shuttle Challenger were killed in an explosion during lift off on January 28, 1986. Ms. Kirkpatrick stated she is anxious to hear what the students ask of the Commander, and see how it may inspire them in their lives. Commander Fincke is from Emsworth, and as Mr. Fink noted a Steeler Fan.

ADJOURN

On a motion by Mr. Fink, seconded by Ms. Kirkpatrick and carried unanimously, the Commissioners moved to adjourn the Public Meeting at 1:50 PM until Thursday, March 5, 2009 at 1:30 PM.
